Dear Lynn:

My company recently completed a prepaid phone card project for your Camel brand. We have worked closely with T. Wayne Robertson and his group on other projects in past years.

Prepaid long distance phone cards appear to have merit as on-pack premiums. I have enclosed — as an example — a set of the recently introduced Finish Line Platinum phone cards and an adaptation of the packaging for Camel Joe Racing. Please note the Camel Joe cards and portfolio are obviously computer mockups. They do work however — give them a try if you like.

I would really like to work with whomever you designate to further explore this idea. Thanks for your consideration.

Regards,

Art West
